If your looking for something truly unique, one of a kind or else its the annual ritual of finding something for someone who has everything, fear not! The solution to your worries are waiting at the The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain in Tucson, AZ. Rarely, if ever can you play a venue ahead of its opening let alone before Tiger, Phil or any of the other usual suspects. Tis the season for giving and limited tee times are being accepted for play on the new, 27-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Design at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain. It also happens to be the new home for the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship too!! It will be on world wide display in 2009 when it makes its debut at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Club, Dove Mountain, February 23 through March 1.
